Announcement:

Specific products of the Medivators Inc are now part of Evoqua Water Technologies, LLC
New Business and Banking Information

Dear Valued Customer,

Evoqua Water Technologies LLC has acquired specific products from US Medivators, Inc. as of January 3, 2022. We will continue to provide high quality solutions and services, bringing value to your organization as a trusted partner. For a complete part listing, click here. (Medivators Customer Documentation \(evoqua.com\))

With this change: You will need to

- Create Evoqua Water Technologies LLC as a supplier in your Vendor Master, with the below banking information.
- Send sales tax exemption certificates for all applicable states to taxdox-acquisitions@evoqua.com to establish exemption status.

If you have 'Evoqua Water Technologies, LLC' set up as a vendor now, make NO changes in that vendor master, it will remain as valid for these products.

The preferred method of payment is ACH with invoice level remittance instructions included in your CTX ACH payment. By including the invoice number using an CTX format within your ACH will allow quick and accurate credit to your account. You may be assessed a fee equal to 3% of the total transaction amount if you choose to pay via credit card and there is an alternative payment method available to you.
